Geometric invariants of additive matrix codes

John Sheekey
University College Dublin, Ireland

We will consider additive rank metric codes from a geometric point of view. This approach has been used to study rank two semifields, which correspond to additive rank metric codes of 2×2 matrices, using invariants which naturally arise in the study of linear sets. The more general setting is wide open, with plenty of interesting open problems of both theoretical and computational nature.